

Author: Caroline Calabrese, Early Childhood Special Education Teacher

Date: 4/16/2020

Activity: LearningAlly

LearningAlly is an app that is used for listening to audiobooks at all ages! LearningAlly strives to provide accessible literature, and this company has been gracious enough to allow ALL of our students at ALL ages free access! This app can be especially useful as your child grows, as this is commonly used for school aged children and up as well, even providing textbooks

Materials:

computer, tablet, or phone

Follow the link provided to set up a Learning Ally account for your child!

https://learningally.org/Portals/6/Docs/parent\_information\_packet\_fillable%20\(3\).pdf?ver=2020-03-17-151102-423.pdf?ver=2020-03-17-151102-423)

This link is to the Parent Kit, which LearningAlly developed for parents to have an easy experience getting their child set up with an account. Please reach out with any concerns or questions to either Jessica Hank (jhank@anchorcenter.org) or Caroline Calabrese (ccalabrese@anchorcenter.org)

Target areas: literacy and auditory listening skills