

Therapeutic Thursdays!

A weekly Horticultural Therapy webinar series through Denver Botanic Gardens! Please join if you can with code: DBGTT for free access. Registration will close 30 minutes before the program. If you can't attend live, we will email you a link to the video, a transcript, and any related handouts if you're registered. All ages and abilities are welcome to participate. Only one registration is needed per family or household. Details on how to join the webinar will be emailed on the day of the program.
